Heads UP!

HOT OFF THE PRESS... FROM THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE GRANGE LEGISLATIVE OFFICE

GRANGE URGES PASSAGE OF DISTRACTED DRIVING BILL

LEMOYNE... The Pennsylvania State Grange wrote April 17 to both Republican and Democratic Chairs of the Senate Transportation Committee urging action on a distracted driving bill in anticipation of an eventual loosening of COVID-19 driving restrictions.

The letter to Majority Chair Kim Ward (R-Westmoreland) and Minority Chair John Sabatina (D-Phila.) said that the Senate Transportation Committee should act on House Bill 37 sponsored by Rep. Rosemary Brown (R-Monroe) to plan for when driving will resume. The letter suggests that when the stay at home edict is relaxed, there will be a surge of driving activity and a resurgence of driving while texting or using cell phones for talking or taking selfies when driving.

In 2015, the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration reported there were 3,196 fatal crashes that occurred on U.S. roadways that involved distraction (10% of all fatal crashes).

More recent Pennsylvania figures from PennDOT's 2018 PA Crash Facts and Statistics cited 128,420 reportable 2018 crashes of which 14,292 (11%) were attributed to distracted driving. These distracted driving accidents resulted in 63 deaths.

The House passed House Bill 37 in January but the Senate Transportation Committee has not yet taken up the bill. The Grange letter notes that the General Assembly's focus is rightly on addressing the coronavirus COVID-19 crisis but that the Senate Transportation Committee should act "as is prudently possible."

GRANGE SUPPORTS BROADBAND REACH BILLS

LEMOYNE... The Pennsylvania State Grange is supporting new legislation that will help communities and their residents in rural Pennsylvania to finally receive high-speed Broadband. Specifically, the two pieces of legislation are Senate Bill 1118 sponsored by Senator Joe Pittman (R-Indiana) and House Bill 2438 sponsored by Rep. Clint Owlett (R-Tioga/Potter/Bradford). These bills would allow rural electric cooperatives and others easier access to "piggyback" on the electrical wiring already in place to expand communications technology to unserved and underserved parts of the State with no or little access to the Internet. SB 1118 and HB 2438 streamline the approval process that must take place before the "piggybacking" can begin.

"The advantage of this legislation is that it takes advantage of existing infrastructure," said Pennsylvania State Grange President Wayne Campbell. "The Grange has repeatedly said that universal access to high-speed Broadband is to this century what Rural Electrification was to the 20th Century. Different technology, but the same message – rural America must not be left behind."

The National Grange was a national leader to achieving the goal of Rural Electrification and is working at the national level to expand rural Broadband. The Pennsylvania State Grange has championed bridging the Digital Divide in Pennsylvania for over a decade. "This approach of utilizing existing electrical infrastructure where feasible helps to provide another answer to the high-cost reality of telecommunications companies that are asked to connect the proverbial last house on the left. Streamlining this approval process will hopefully speed up the approval process and put more money on Broadband expansion that would have previously been spent on permit acquisition," Campbell said.

Currently, SB 1118 is in the Senate Communications & Technology Committee. HB 2438 is in the House Consumer Affairs Committee.

MEDIA STATEMENT ON WOLF'S VETOS

Pennsylvania State Grange believes that the May 19 veto by Governor Wolf of more business opening legislation is unfortunate. While appreciating his desire to defend his original business closure order, hopefully he will see that there is significant interest in getting PA's economy and tax base back on track by safely following CDC guidelines. It is our hope that he will allow auto dealers and garden centers to reopen with CDC guidelines just as he did with Realtors a short time after his veto of the legislation that would have done the same thing. Source: <https://www.governor.pa.gov/wp-content/uploads/2020/05/20200519-Real-Estate-Guidance.pdf>

Our fear is that these vetoes will poison the proverbial well as the Governor and the General Assembly begin to discuss State Budget enactment in June. Our Government's actions in both branches have become extremely partisan and this is hurting all Pennsylvanians! Pennsylvania deserves a team working together, now more than ever, and that is not what we are seeing.

January 2, 2020 Lizzie Bailey, Cliff Bailey, Debbie Campbell and myself are busy setting up the Pennsylvania State Grange booth at the Farm Show. Members of Valley Grange are getting the world famous milk shake machines cleaned up and ready for another year of dispensing those delicious milk shakes. Grangers are active over in the Family Activities corner assembling quilt displays, photos made from seeds, sewing displays and many other family related displays. We were all excited just thinking about the week ahead. Friday night at the Pa Preferred Dinner the Pennsylvania State Grange Royalty were able to mingle with Legislators, business owners, representatives from Penn State Land Grant University, and meet with Secretary Redding. Saturday morning, we were all at the State Grange booth excited to tell visitors the advantages of being a Grange member and how Grange can make a difference in your community. Life was good!!!

Fast forward to March 19, 2020. Brittany Covey, our Pennsylvania State Grange Office Secretary, brought in hoagies her daughter was selling for Debbie and I. We talked about this new virus that has been in the news called the Coronavirus. We wondered how it would affect the operations at the office, how will it affect our Granges and Grangers throughout the state and even the country. We monitored the news throughout the day and wondered what steps our government would be taking to help keep us safe. It was a little different than any other day at the office, but it was another day at the office. We said our goodbyes late that afternoon and said I'll see you tomorrow. By the time I had reached my home in Perry County, Brittany had texted me and asked if I heard the news. Pennsylvania's Governor has issued a stay at home order and all non-life sustaining businesses are to close by 8:00 P.M. tonight. WOW. It's May 12, 2020 and Brittany and I still have not seen each other at the office.

Our world changed in what seemed like hours. It suddenly became not okay to shake hands, not okay to give someone a hug when you meet them, not okay to run out to the store for a single item. Jobs were lost by the thousands, lives were turned upside down, and as of today, we are still wondering what our future will look like.

But in these trying, stressful, uncertain times, Grangers again stand above the crowd. Within days members were making masks to give to health care workers and other at risk members in their community. Granges were becoming food distribution points in conjunction with their local food banks and making food items to give out in addition to the food from the food bank. They were contacting neighbors and elderly members to see if they were okay and did they need anything from the store. Many of our members are essential workers, doctors, nurses, healthcare providers, truck drivers, and the list goes on, who continue to go to work every day to keep our lives safe. Grangers began to embrace a new way of coming together, that thing called ZOOM conferencing. It was the new way to hold a Grange meeting. In many cases more members joined in because they could do so from the safety and comfort of their homes even if they were hours away from the Grange Hall.

May 11, 2020 brought another announcement by the Pennsylvania State Grange no one could have ever imagined. The word went out that Youth Camp, Junior Camp, and Family Festival have all been cancelled for 2020. Not in our most bizarre dreams would we have ever thought we'd see an announcement like that. Every day is bringing new cancellations of public events. When will we return to life as we knew it? Will we ever return to life as before, or is this the new normal? I don't have the answers to these questions, but I do know that every day Grangers are meeting a need in their communities. Every day Grangers are cultivating connections to be sure there is a brighter future for all our communities.

Let's make sure we continue to make a difference in our communities. Let's follow the Grange motto, "In essentials unity, in nonessentials liberty, and in all things charity". Thank God every day for all the blessings he has bestowed upon us, even in these trying times. Let's start each new day as we start our meetings, "The hour of labor has arrived and the work of another day demands our attention." I look forward to when we can again gather in our halls and gain comfort and strength from that time together.

Promises Made: Promises Kept

Do you ever stop to notice how God answers you sometimes in ways you did not expect? He has promised that He would be with us always. When I mentioned to our daughter that I have been praying about my next article, she suggested a theme. I told her she must have been the answer that God promised!

Beginning in March we entered a very unsettling period in our lives. We don't know what to expect that our lives will be like in July or August. Will restrictions be lifted or will they still be in place? Will we have escaped or contracted the COVID 19? Will employees be back to work or still unemployed? Will we be feeding our families from the grocery stores and own gardens or will we still be depending on food banks? Will we be attending church in our living rooms or in our sanctuaries? Will our camps be up and running or a dream for next year? Wherever we find ourselves this summer, one thing is for sure. God has promised He would be with us always.

As I write this in early May we are still in the Easter season and we could compare our situation to that of the disciples in their first Easter season. From Good Friday on they experienced a very unsettling time. They had no way of knowing what life was going to be like for them from that day forward. Their leader had been crucified, dead and buried. And because of the violent mood of the crowds, they had every right to be living in fear and uncertainty. Would they be recognized as His followers and hunted down? Should they run away or just hide out? Could they possibly have the same influence on the people now or could their message be conceived as worthless? What did their futures hold? They temporarily forgot He had promised He would not abandon them.

Their Easter season began when He arose victorious over death and appeared to His disciples. Once again He promised He would never leave them orphans. He was going to send his Holy Spirit as a comforter and counselor for them.

His promise is as good today as it was then: He will never leave us without a Comforter to help through the twists and turns of our earthly lives and to help prepare us for our heavenly home. He will be with us through our deepest valleys, comfort us in our fears and desperation, surround us in our loneliness, depression, illnesses, and even grief over the loss of loved ones.

Think of it like this: When you see a beautiful butterfly this summer, remember how that caterpillar had to go through its dark chrysalis period before it could emerge triumphantly into what God intended it to become! Remembering his promises, we too can emerge triumphantly into what God wants us to be!

Praying for love in all aspects of your lives,
Judy Pressler, Chaplain

It's a new day with new opportunities!

Many people have experienced loss of family members, some people may have been ill and recovered, and workers stepped up on the front lines and became our heroes. Our kids and youth lost out on schooling, events, being able to see friends and extended family. Stay at home orders, social distancing, masks, and waiting patiently to go through phases of red, yellow and green. This all has been part of our new normal.

But in spite of all the challenges, regulations, and loneliness of missing people this pandemic created some positive things.

We all were given the gift of downtime and we discovered our families again. Kindness emerged as people started taking care of each other by donating, volunteering, calling their neighbors to check on them, and running errands for those with compromised health.

Strangers stepped up to help farmers by buying milk and helping sell their eggs and produce so animals could be saved and people could receive food that needed it.

The list could go on and on about great acts of kindness and gratitude.

Grangers stepped up in times of need and gave it their all and dug a little deeper and gave more.

We turned to technology, as this became the avenue for virtual communication. We socialized, we learned through online classes and workshops, we held parties, we played games, and we cooked. We invited neighbors, acquaintances, and even strangers to our events. And these people came and we all had fun!

In this new day, Grange is so important as our organization offers what many people are yearning for, and they just didn't realize it till a pandemic stopped us all in our tracks. There are opportunities for Grange to grow if we keep our momentum. Social distancing is here for the long haul and Grangers need to be looking for opportunities to involve those around us.

We at the state office are here for our members, let us work with you, to create virtual events, do Grange business, and look for these new opportunities in your area.

I'm a phone call/email away, check in with me to let me know how you are doing.

Yours in Grange service,

COVID TRANSPARENCY LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Rural Pennsylvania took the brunt of business closures. Closing an auto dealer or a gardening center or a small mom and pop store is a big deal to a rural community. Farmers took a big hit when closing restaurants led to the dumping of milk, eggs, and vegetables. Why did "they" make those decisions? Why were Realtors closed in PA and not in any other state? Why were the big box stores allowed to keep their retail sales of non-food items going while traditional department stores like PA-owned Boscov's were forced to shutter their doors?

In defense of the Governor, he had to do something quickly and quick decisions had to be made. However, the best public policy is one that is thought through where everyone believes that there are consistent criteria for making these decisions.

The business shut-down waiver process seemed arbitrary with some businesses saved financially and others not. Who made those decisions? Who knows? When methodology for these decisions is hidden, people will see exceptions to the supposed rules and wonder if the closures are merited. That perception prompted a Republican reaction from the legislature, which in turn, prompted the Governor's reaction, which of course generated more partisan backlash, more vetoes, and an unsuccessful attempt to override.

Here is the real tragedy. Lack of transparency has made people even more skeptical of our government at a time when people must trust that officials have everyone's best interest at heart. Credibility is at the heart of our democratic system. In Pennsylvania's case, that was lost.

Sincerely,
Wayne Campbell

Program Director

Jenn Nauss
PA State Grange Program Director

Greetings from South Central PA!

I hope this finds you and your families safe and well during these unprecedented times. So much has changed since I wrote the last article for the Grange News. But what has not changed is the potential for our Granges to continue their work in our communities. Granges across the state and nation have been adapting to these new times to best serve their communities. Some Granges are holding virtual meetings and hosting virtual programs for their members. Some Granges are reimagining their roles in their communities – making masks, helping feed the hungry, and with countless other projects. If your Grange has not done so yet, consider ways that you can reach the members of your Grange and members of your larger community. Are you able to use a virtual platform – like Zoom or Conference Calls – to hold meetings and connect with your members? Can you fill a need in your community with a special service project? How can you share the Grange story in your communities?

A few months ago, I never would have anticipated the far-reaching implications of COVID-19. The Regional Conferences that were scheduled at Big Knob Grange and Kutztown Grange have been postponed indefinitely. Should it be safe to gather in large numbers later this year, I will explore our options for rescheduling. Should it not be safe to gather, we will look forward to hosting the Regional Conferences next spring.

The COVID-19 crisis also impacts several of the Lecturer's Department Contests and Programs. The Committee has been hard at work brainstorming ways that we can move forward with some contests and programs while recognizing that traditional ways are not possible at this time. These changes are summarized below.

Talent Goes Virtual

Because of the cancellation of Family Festival, the Talent Show for 2020 will be held virtually. Members are encouraged to submit video recordings of their talents, which will be presented in an online format. The classes and rules will remain the same. It will be determined if this will be a contest or an exhibition for 2020.

Classes:

1. Instrumental
2. Vocal
3. Variety/Other Acts

Division:

1. Subordinate (14+)

Rules:

1. Time Limit: No minimum; all acts will be held to a 5-minute maximum.
2. Participants must provide their own accompaniment (either live or recorded).
3. Best of Show winner from the previous year may not enter the Talent Contest in the same class the following year.

The Virtual Talent Show will be held on Saturday, July 18th (the original date during Family Festival). More information about how to view and/or join the Talent Show will be shared closer to the time. Talent videos should be submitted by Saturday, July 4th to allow adequate time to compile videos for the Talent Show. Videos may be submitted by email or Cloud link to jnauss89@gmail.com or submitted on Flash Drive or CD to:

Introducing a New Report to Replace the Community Night/Open House Report

The Lecturer's Department is well aware of the fact that many Granges may have needed to postpone or cancel their Open Houses for this year because of the COVID-19 crisis. In recognition of this and to honor the work of Lecturers during these unprecedented times, we are introducing a new program – Creative Connections.

This report will take the place of the Open House report form. There will be three divisions.

- Division A – Granges who were able to hold their Open House – “We had our Open House and here is what it looked like...”
- Division B – Granges who had planned their Open House but could not hold it – “We had our Open House planned, but could not have it. Here is what it would have looked like...”
- Division C – Granges who could not hold their Open House – “Because of COVID-19, we could not have our Open House. Here is what we did instead...”

Granges who fall in Division A can complete the form similarly to how they would have completed the Open House form in the past.

Granges who fall in Division B can complete the form similarly to how they would have in the past, except some information will be unknown (like number of attendees). Lecturers should fill out the form with as much information and supporting documents as they have to show what their Open House would have looked like if they would have been able to have it.

Division C is designed to acknowledge that many Lecturers and Granges have found ways to share the Grange Story in their communities in ways other than a traditional Open House. Perhaps your Grange is holding virtual meetings with programs to engage your members. Maybe your Grange is finding unique ways to serve your community during this time. Whatever your Grange is doing to connect with your members and the community during this time of social distancing is important and is worthy of acknowledgement. If your Grange's outreach during this time has been community service, you can report on that in both this report and your Community Service Report.

There will still be membership classes in each division:

1. Pomona
2. Subordinate – Up to 50 members
3. Subordinate – Between 51 and 99 members
4. Subordinate – 100 or more members

Because of this change, winning Granges in each division and class will receive a framed Certificate of Excellence in lieu of a plaque for this year.

New COVID-19 Contest Classes

New Classes have been added to the Pen in Hand and Photography Contests.

Pen in Hand

- NEW Class – “One thing I learned during Social Distancing...”
- Be creative with this! This could be a poignant life lesson learned during the COVID-19 crisis. It could be a new skill or hobby (perhaps art or sewing or learning how to cut hair) that you have picked up with extra time on your hands. It could be a humorous piece.

- 500 word maximum
- All other Pen in Hand rules should be followed as detailed in the Guide to Contests and Programs

Photography

- NEW Class – “Beauty in the Midst of Crisis”
- This is also a class that allows for a lot of flexibility and interpretation! Maybe you have taken a photo of some beautiful flowers growing in your garden. Maybe you have taken a photo of your Grange's community service work during this time. Maybe you took a photo of a child or grandchild while you have been home. Use your imagination and hone your photography skills.
- All Photography rules should be followed as detailed in the Guide to Contests and Programs.

All other Contests and Programs are being continued. This is the perfect time to work on your “My Favorite Anything” entry or work on submitting your programs for the “Design a Program” contest.

Please read the weekly Grange email blasts and check the Grange website for any other updates that may come up in the next few months. Look for more information about how to join and/or view the Virtual Talent Show as we get closer to July.

As a reminder, please make sure to send reports and designated contests to me by September 15. The report forms are available on the Lecturer's page of the Pennsylvania State Grange website and also in a mailing to Granges.

In lieu of traditional program ideas, here are some ideas for how to continue to provide meaningful programs or otherwise connect with your members during this time of Social Distancing.

- Consider using a virtual conference call program – like Zoom – to hold meetings. The State Grange has a Zoom account and can help you to set up your meeting. What is really nice about Zoom is that both computer-users and dial-in-users can access the meeting. There are many programming options that would be possible on Zoom meetings, including educational speakers, programs about topics of interest, and even fun and games, like Bingo or Trivia.
- If virtual meetings are not an option, coordinate volunteers from your Grange to make regular contact with members who may not be connected through email or social media. Check-in on them to see how they are doing and if there is anything they need. Make sure they are getting updates from your local Grange and the State Grange.
- Work with your Community Service Chair to think of unique ways that you can serve your communities at this time. Even though some restrictions are in the process of being lifted, there will be plenty of needs that will continue, even as counties move to the yellow phase and green phases.

As always, please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions or concerns. Also, please share with me what your Grange is doing to connect with your members and the community during this time. I would love to feature the great things you are doing in future articles.

Youth Camp, Virtually There Theme

Who would have thought our lives and schedules would change so drastically from one issue of the PGN to the next? With the cancellation of so many of our favorite activities this year, we are looking for new ways to connect and socialize.

The Youth and Young Adults Committee will be holding Youth Camp this year with the newly revised theme of "Virtually There". We are planning several fun activities during the weekend of when Youth Camp would have been held, so save these dates and times on your calendar!

- Friday, June 26, Virtually There Camp Kick-off beginning at 6 pm, followed by a night of activities, and
- Saturday, June 27, Virtually There Camp activities beginning at 5 pm

The complete schedule and links will be posted on the "Penn-sylvaniana State Grange Youth and Young Adults" Facebook group soon. If you are not a member of this group yet, please search for the group and send a request to join so that you will not miss out on the fun! Some of the activities being planned include Trivia, card games, scavenger hunt, escape room, and possibly more. Attendance at any of the events during Virtually There Youth Camp will earn you a special memento to be sent in the mail. Please register at the Youth Camp link: <https://form.jotform.com/200735641693154> if you plan to participate. There is no cost for the Virtually There Youth Camp this year.

If we receive a positive response from activities at Virtually There Youth Camp, we will schedule additional nights throughout the rest of the summer.

At this time, we are still planning to hold our annual Young Adults Weekend, 21-23 August.

The sign-up link is: <https://form.jotform.com/200697787218165> and we will be staying in the Harrisburg area. Attendance for this event will be capped at 20 Young Adults, so register soon.

In this time of change and uncertainty, we are continually looking for new ideas and ways to help our fellow Grangers. If you are looking for a little something different for your Grange virtual meeting, let me know. Our Pennsylvania State Grange Youth Ambassadors, Young Patrons, as well as our committee and myself, are ready and willing to provide a program for your Grange or event.

Light The Cake– Big plans were made earlier this year to light a birthday cake to recognize the upcoming 150th anniversary of the Pennsylvania State Grange. The cake was introduced at the first of the planned regional leadership conferences held early March in Centre County and several of the candles were sold that day (see attached photo). We had hoped to take the cake all over the state at various Grange activities (other regional leadership conferences, camps and Family Festival) and challenge members to sponsor one of the 150 candles. The monies raised will be the kick-off of finances needed to fund the State Grange's 150th anniversary celebration, beginning with the April 2021 kick-off and continuing through the 2023 session in Reading, PA. Some candles have been purchased but we are behind schedule with the cancellation of Grange activities this spring and summer.

With your help, we can still reach our goal to have all candles sponsored and the cake ablaze by the time of the state session in Erie this fall. To find out what candles remain and how to make your contribution, contact Steve & Karen Mohn, 308 Mill Road, Womelsdorf, PA 19567 (ask-mohn@comcast.net).

Anniversary Kick-Off – Did you reserve the date of Saturday, April 17, 2021, to attend the kick-off of the State Grange's 150th anniversary? A big day is planned starting with an open house and reception at Eagle Grange #1 near Montgomery, PA where the Grange movement began in Pennsylvania in 1871. A festive luncheon is planned at the nearby Country Cupboard Restaurant and Shops north of Lewisburg featuring a motivational speaker and historical candlelighting ceremony. For tickets and details, contact Anna May Nauss, 10 West Schoolside Drive, Mechanicsburg, PA 17055 (amnauss@aol.com).

Update on Eagle Grange – Speaking of Grange #1, as of late spring major renovations to the hall were al-traditional degree work that teaches Grange principles. While many people note the importance of Grange ritual, the degrees seem to be exemplified infrequently in many parts of the state. As part of the 150th anniversary activities, we hope to present the first and second degrees at the state session in 2021 and the third and fourth degrees in 2022, complete with tableaux and speaking parts memorized. In 2023, the celebration will culminate with the exemplification of the fifth and sixth degrees in full form. We are looking for Granges, counties or other groups of patrons to exemplify the first through fourth degrees. If interested, contact Doug Bonsall, PO Box 765, Dauphin, PA 17018 (douglas.b@verizon.net).

New On-Line Resources –

Perhaps you've noticed the addition of many more digitized files to the History Committee pages of the State Grange website. During some unexpected free time of this past spring, several committee volunteers uploaded the final group of documents that tell nearly 150 years of the Pennsylvania State Grange story – officers' registers, Executive Committee minutes and historical books published at major anniversaries. With the exception of future documents as they are created, this completes the microfilming and digitizing to preserve important documents that began several years ago.

PA State Grange Junior Committee
Director

Hello and Happy Summertime to all of you!!

WOW - what a crazy end of winter and spring we've had! At the time I am writing this - most of Pennsylvania will be moving into the "Yellow" stage of the plan to get our state back to working and functioning a little more. However, so much is not going back to "normal" and it is affecting all of us in one way or another. It was a very sad day when I had to announce that the Pennsylvania State Junior Grange Camp was being cancelled. For decades, Juniors have been attending a week of camp and enjoying the fun, friendships and memories made. Although we won't be together in person, the Junior Grange Committee and I are working on offering some virtual fun and a few surprises during the week that we would have been at State camp. We will have activities, craft sessions, presenters, how-to videos and we will also have a LIVE online Coronation Ceremony on Friday July 3rd. During the Coronation - we will announce the new Junior Grange Ambassadors. Information was sent out to the Juniors who are age eligible and they went through a process similar to what they would do if they were at camp. So, if you receive this edition of PA Grange News prior to July 3rd, please tune in to the Coronation. (details will be announced on the email blast and facebook page)

During this trying time of social distancing, it can be difficult to find joy... especially if you are a child and are missing your friends. Many of our Juniors across the commonwealth have kept busy with their online school, building forts, climbing trees, baking goodies, helping around the house and even celebrating their birthdays in unique (and social distancing) ways! I featured a few Juniors in the photos to show you that they are finding ways to keep busy, help each other and share a message! It is great to see so many smiling faces in these photos.

As we approach the late summer and start of the new school year, I wish for all of you to make the most of the situation and do good things. Bring a smile to someone's face, learn a new skill or work more on the skills you have struggled with. Do more with your family and appreciate what you have around you. Time moves so quickly and all of this will be a distant memory one day. So while you have the time... do some good so those memories are extra special!

Big Hugs and High Fives to all of you! Keep being AWESOME!

Major Changes to the 2020 Pennsylvania State Grange Convention

The Executive Committee of the Pennsylvania State Grange has made the very difficult decision to greatly scale back this year's convention. Due to the dangers presented by the Coronavirus we have decided to follow the same format being used by the National Grange. The safety of our members must be our primary concern. Only Delegates, Officers, and minimal staffing will be allowed to attend. No guests, Grange or otherwise, will be able to attend session. All resolution work will be completed by the committees via ZOOM meetings prior to the convention and a single committee representative will be at session to present recommendations. Committee members who are not Delegates will not be allowed to attend. There will be no displays, presentation of the 6th Degree, Banquets, Benefit Auction, and Youth or Junior activities. By the time you read this in the PGN your Subordinate and Pomona Master/President will have received a detailed letter with application for your Delegates.

Our Directors are working on ways to continue the work of the committees virtually. Please watch for information in the email blasts and on Facebook for further details. If you do not receive the email blast please contact Lizzie Bailey at 717.254.9550 to have your email address added to the mailing list. If you have members without email, please share the information with them as it becomes available.

The drawing for the Family Activities Quilt was going to take place prior to session due to a clarification of the Small Games of Chance Law this year. That drawing will still take place and the winners will be announced. Please send any prizes to session along with your Delegates. Any winners who are present will receive their prizes and the others will be distributed as quickly as possible.

Please be aware that this was a very difficult decision for the entire Executive Committee. We enjoy the business and fellowship at session as much as everyone else. We just do not feel that, at this time, we can adequately prepare for session to be held in a safe format for all our members. If you have any questions or concerns about the change in session, please let an Executive Committee member know.

2020 National Grange Convention

The National Grange Executive Committee is very sorry to announce that the 2020 National Grange Convention will have many changes because of the Covid-19 pandemic and therefore will be open for National delegates and officers only. No visitors or Grangers will be invited to attend in person this year.

The convention will be cut to two days and the only business will be voting on resolutions and electing two executive committee officers. Extra activities, such as the Evening of Excellence, Youth and Junior Public Speaking and Sign a Song, will take place virtually. The Seventh Degree will not be exemplified this year.

Other recognitions such as Community Service awards, Distinguished Grange, Grange Legacy Family, and the Quilt Block Contest, will be held and awards given, but there will be no ceremony. National Grange Department Directors will be sending out information regarding their programs and how they will be handled this year, so stay tuned!

The Valley Forge Casino Resort, site of the convention, has been closed since March 14 to this date (June 6). We don't know when it will be permitted to open, because the counties around Philadelphia are a hot spot for the virus. The hotel is willing to allow us to downsize our convention to two days, 80 people, hopefully without penalty, so we are exercising that option at this time.

Also we do not want to endanger any of our members by asking them to travel and to spend days in a large crowd. The health and safety of our Grange family comes first. We feel it may not be safe to gather, even by November. Many of your State Sessions will see major changes this year also. We hope you will understand this decision, and keep on working at the local level as much as you can to help your communities.

Fraternally,
Betsy E. Huber

LOG CABIN UNITY GRANGE

Stories from members and their involvement with Grange never grow old. Ginny Straub of Log Cabin Unity Grange, Mercer County celebrated 60 years as a Granger this past April. Ginny shared that her neighbor was an avid Grange member at Mill Brook Grange. Ginny was invited to go along to an event. She liked Grange and she joined when she was 16 years old.

Ginny has a lifetime of memories that are wrapped around

Grange. She met her husband Richard through events. One evening at the Mercer County Grange Fair Square Dance he asked her to dance. Ginny shared that he was very quiet, but before the evening was over, he was able to steal a kiss under the moonlight with her. Ginny laughed as she said, "He was an old bachelor at 33 and I was an old maid of 26 when we married a few years later".

Ginny shared that she and Richard raised their two boys; Joel and Chris in Grange. The boys attended camp every year, they both served as Junior Princes and Youth Ambassadors. In later years after Joel married Christie (Bagenstose), they served as Young Couple of the Year. Ginny said with great pride, "I have never missed a Junior Grange Camp in all these years". IMPORTANT TO YOU!

Please contact the Pennsylvania State Grange on issues that are important to you. After all, our legislative goals come from members. Please let us know: legislative@pagrange.org or 717-737-8855 or 717-346-1063. If you want help in drafting a resolution to be considered by your local Grange which then gets voted on at State Session in October, please utilize the Pennsylvania State Grange as a resource. If you want to see the positions taken by the Pennsylvania State Grange on legislative and regulatory issues, please refer to our web site, www.pagrange.org.

Pennsylvania State Grange members have a variety of interests and backgrounds. What all have in common is a desire to appreciate the blessings we are given even while wanting to improve the state in which we live. This article discusses how Grange members can let their concerns be acted on by the Pennsylvania State Grange. When they suggest Grange policies through Resolutions at the State Session, it represents this grassroots, member-centered, policy process. What should we advocate? You tell us.

Here are a few from the 2019 State Session that were adopted and became Grange policy.

- Resolved: The Pennsylvania State Grange actively advocates passage of legislation to allow milk haulers an exemption from weather-related closings of Interstate highways.
- Resolved: The Pennsylvania and the National Grange support legislation calling for a halt on implementation of MS4 and if implementation is continued, farmers be exempt from having to incur costs connected with storm water management plan development or simply be exempted from the MS4 requirement altogether. (MS4 is federally-mandated storm water management with costs borne by municipalities and ultimately the taxpayers.)
- Resolved: The Pennsylvania State Grange urge the PA Game Commission to allow electronic transmission and payment for antlerless deer hunting license applications.

MEMBERS DRIVE GRANGE POLICY

What Does This Have to do With You?

Our strength comes from you, our members. The things we advocate come from you, our members. Ask yourself these questions.

- What is going on with state government that has or is affecting you now?
- What legislation is important to rural PA? What do you want to see enacted?

The Process: Put Forth a Resolution.

Take your ideas and write them down. There is a format for Resolutions. It includes two parts. The first is Whereas. The whereas clauses show the need. What is the need that prompts your suggestion as Grange policy? The second part of the format is the Resolved. Simply put, what do you want the Pennsylvania State Grange to advocate?

Here is a sample format:

WHEREAS, much of PA agriculture depends on pollination by bees, and;

WHEREAS, bees are under stress with hive collapses and emerging threats like the Asian Murder Hornet, and;

WHEREAS, research is vital to finding ways to restore and preserve the PA bee population; therefore be it the PA Department of Agriculture to declare restoration of PA's bee population a state priority for research funding.

RESOLVED: The Pennsylvania State Grange asks

That wasn't so hard was it? Rest assured, if you need help in drafting something, please feel free to contact the State Office for help (legislative@pagrange.org).

The next step is the hardest. An individual must first take his or her idea and bring to their own Grange for discussion. That means that the author must talk with other members about their idea. Addressing the fear of public speaking that some have, keep in mind that this is not a speech.

discuss them. Their role is to vet the proposed Resolutions to make sure that they do not duplicate existing Grange policy and that they are feasible. Then, these committees forward the Resolutions to the State Session Delegate body with recommendations.

These recommendations would be evaluated by Delegates. Is the Resolution present policy? Should it be adopted or rejected? Should it be amended and then approved? The State Session Delegates make the final decision. Sometimes the recommendations from the Resolutions meeting are heeded. Sometimes not. That ensures that every recommendation from a Grange member gets a fair hearing at both the Resolutions meeting and by State Session Delegates.

Sometimes the State Session Delegates ask that the Resolution be sent back to the relevant resolutions committee for re-drafting in case the original Resolution was unclear or needs to be amended. Then, it goes back to State Session again for the final decision on what our policies should be.

Of course, if you have a Resolution that means something to you and others, attending and participating in local and state Grange meetings is certainly an important part of achieving your goal.

Underscore the importance of this process. It is open. It is transparent. And it is fruitful because then the Pennsylvania State Grange has a direction of what its members want it to do. Your adopted Resolution also provides marching orders for Grange lobbying and media. The most important takeaway from this article is that you can make your views felt.

Vince Phillips is the lobbyist for the Pennsylvania State Grange. He has lobbied in PA since 1989, coming from the Nation's Capitol where, among other things, he served on President Reagan's Transition Team and held a Reagan Administration appointment at USDA.

It is a conversation with fellow Grangers. You say why this idea is important. Fellow members ask questions and you all discuss it. Then your Grange votes to forward your suggestion.

The next step is a state-level meeting which usually takes place in September. The Pennsylvania State Grange has specific subcommittees that take the ideas and that in 2007 they were chosen as Grange Family of the Year.

"Grange offers something for everyone who joins", added Ginny as she thought about all the things over the years that Grange provided them. She has held just about every office through the Mercer County Pomona, was Master at Stonypoint Grange and Log Cabin Unity Grange. She added that Richard passed away in 2017 and it is hard losing a spouse. She added that her strength comes from the time she spends with her family and lifelong Grange friends she has made from across the country.

Congratulations Ginny on 60 years a Granger!

PROGRESS GRANGE #96

In mid-March, as the COVID-19 stay-at-home restrictions were families, a call for help was sent out from the local YMCA to open up food distribution sites across the Penns Valley area of Centre County. Responding to this need, Progress Grange #96 Master Denny McCloskey reached out to Mel Curtis, Moshannon Valley YMCA Branch Director, offering the Progress Grange in Centre Hall as a family food pick-up location.

and veterans. These folks would receive, at no cost, a homemade soup and sandwich, fruit, and a dessert treat. Many bags were delivered personally to shut-ins by Grange members and other community volunteers.

The Penns Valley Hope Fund has also partnered with the Progress Grange and the YMCA to financially support the effort to get food in to the hands of those that need it most. Private, individual donations have been given in excess of $500. Each week numbers have grown steadily, with items such as milk, eggs, and fresh fruit being offered along with various shelf-stable foods. It is estimated that the Grange distribution has helped over 500 individuals since this project began.

We also want to make known a few other facts;

1. In past weeks, Progress Grange made over 100 sandwiches each week. Half of them are turkey and other half ham. They are put in the senior / veteran bags. This past week we made almost 150 sandwiches
2. Progress Grange made over 150 pieces of chocolate cake to be included in the bags this past week.
3. Progress Grange, made the soup that is included in the senior / veteran bags (Ham Potpie, vegetable beef, and ham and bean)
4. Our location is also being used as a warehouse for packing and distributing bags to other locations in Penns Valley area
5. It takes many hours of preparation each week for the distribution to take place (over 60 hours of volunteers)

Senior / Veteran bags ready for distribution

Several of our members met at the Grange and prepared the Ham pot pie that went in the first Senior and Vet bags, and the vegetable soup that went in the next time, and the ham and bean that is going in this time. They made the cake and cupcakes that went in last weeks. A little bit of home made goodness for our seniors and vets. Denny has specific numbers of the folks who come for the meals, and the weekend bags, as well as the number that we deliver with the help of community members who have asked to join in.

VENANGO GRANGE

In Venango County Wesley Grange members were joined by local students in preparing "Vial of Life" kits. A "Vial of Life" decal on an entry door indicates to first responders that vital information is posted on the refrigerator door. The kit contains important medical information that can assist emergency personnel in administering the proper medical treatment. The free kits prepared by Wesley Grange will be used by those in Venango and surrounding counties including Crawford, Clarion, Mercer, Butler, and Lawrence. More information on the "Vial of Life" program can be found online at vialoflife.com.
